

OUR TOWN ~ THEN & NOW

Learning local history through art and each other!

Dates/Times:

Sundays: 4/12, 4/19, 4/26, 5/10, 5/17, 5/31 * 1:30p.m.-3:30p.m.

Saturdays: 5/2, 5/30 * 12:30p.m.-2:30p.m.

Where: Waterville Public Library

A free 8 session class is being offered at the Waterville Public Library! Create a living history with other students through engagement with historic photographs, art, and guest speakers. Teaching Artist Shirleyanne Ratajczak will lead this course geared to seniors; multigenerational participants welcome. As a group, students will create a culminating exhibit that will be open to the public.

Register at <http://ourtown2015.eventbrite.com> or by calling 207.680.2603.

Free and open to the public. Best to register by 3/23/15. Registration deadline: 3/31/15.

For more information, please contact Tammy Rabideau at 207.680.2611 or trabideau@watervillelibrary.org.

Sponsored by Maine Arts Commission Creative Aging Partnership Grant

73 Elm Street, Waterville, ME 04901 | (207) 872-5433 | Fax (207) 873-4779 |

info@watervillelibrary.org | www.watervillelibrary.org

WATERVILLE
PUBLIC LIBRARY
LOCAL HISTORY & GENEALOGY